

STEVE COLANGELO

R.F.D. #12, Dixon Road
Carmel, New York 10512
Home phone: (914) 225-1644 • Work Phone: (212) 477-9796

WORK HISTORY

CITY of NEW YORK POLICE DEPARTMENT - New York City	1961-Present
Detective 2nd Grade
BALLISTICS UNIT	1969-Present
• One of six Ballistics Unit investigators in NYPD, coordinate work of 6-10 persons, ranking from patrolman to inspector, conducting investigations in 700 cases annually.
• Coordinate examination of evidence for District Attorney, producing more than one thousand reports and preparing more than 300 cases for trial annually.
• Establish priority of cases to be investigated.
• Recover and photograph evidence, study fingerprints and perform laboratory analysis.
• Interview thousands of complainants.
• Testify in court on results of investigation, including origin of bullet, field trajectory, etc.
• Helped establish ballistics departments for municipalities in the United States and Central America.
• Promoted to detective, 1972.
Patrolman
SPECIAL EVENTS SQUAD	1968-1969
• Responsible for crowd control and personal safety of VIP's during public appearances.
EMERGENCY SERVICES UNITS - Bronx and Manhattan	1968
• Responsible for control of emergency situations; such as riots, bombings, fires, accidents and medical problems.
SAFETY UNIT	1967
• City wide patrolmen responsible for traffic control.
UNIFORMED PRECINCT PATROLMAN	1961-1967
• Responsible for protection of life and property, investigations, crowd and traffic control.

ADDITIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT BACKGROUND

Deputy Sheriff - Putnam County, New York	1990-Present
• Court Security.

LECTURER

- Homicide investigators course.
- New York City Medical Examiners.
- New York City District Attorneys.
- Instruction on ballistics, firearms and wounding effects of firearms.

AWARDS

- Meritorious Duty Award for outstanding police action.
- Excellent Police Duty Award for outstanding police action. (Three time recipient)